Swimming pools lose energy in different ways, but evaporation is easily the most significant cause. Evaporating water requires a lot of energy. It only takes 1 BTU to raise 1 pound of water 1 degree, but each pound of water that evaporates takes 1,048 BTU's of heat out of the pool.

Blanketing your pool when it's not in use is the most effective way to reduce pool heating costs. Savings of 50-70% are possible; but taking a cover on and off all the time is a hassle. The SolarPill is 100% easier to use. This product may help qualify for LEED WE points.
